Affordable, safe housing supports good health

- Affordable housing frees up household resources for health care, healthy food, and other things that support wellbeing
- Well-constructed and maintained housing reduces the risks of lead poisoning, asthma attacks, and other illnesses

Medicaid Basics

- Partnership between federal government and states to provide health care coverage to low-income individuals
- States administer the program and have some discretion in health care coverage and federal government reimburses a portion of the costs
- The Affordable Care Act (ACA) & subsequent court cases have expanded Medicaid eligibility for low-income adults in 24 states

Accountable Care Organizations

- New to Medicaid, ACOs are a network of health care providers and organizations
- Required to meet quality standards & coordinate care
- Incentivized to reduce health care spending

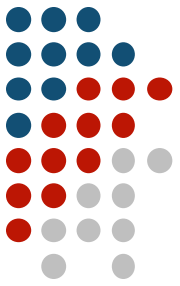

Medicaid Health Homes

- Medicaid state plan option
- Health care provider or network
- Eligible individuals have chronic conditions
- Coordinates health care services with social services with focus on “whole person”

Hospital Community Benefit Requirement

- ACA expands requirement of nonprofit hospitals to demonstrate the community benefit from their work
- Nonprofit hospitals must complete community health needs assessments
- Must also develop strategies to address identified health needs in community

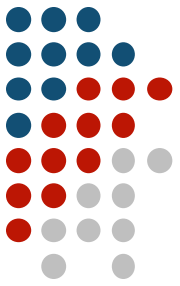

Medicaid Reimbursement Flexibility

- Federal Medicaid rule update expands the kinds of providers eligible for Medicaid reimbursement beyond medical practitioners
- States have discretion to reimburse preventative services offered by non-medical practitioners
- Some states reimburse lead testing, asthma prevention and education services

Home and Community-Based Services

- The ACA makes it easier for states to offer home and community-based services (HCBS) to Medicaid enrollees as part of state plan
- The ACA's new Community First Choice state plan option for attendant services with a “person centered” approach

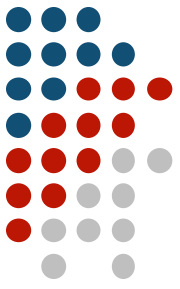

Supportive Housing

- New York State's Medicaid reform includes utilizing state Medicaid savings to construct and rehab supportive housing for formerly homeless individuals and older adults
