About Solutions for Affordable Housing

Solutions for Affordable Housing convenes practitioners and housing advocates for a day of engaging discussions of how community needs connect to national housing policy. Speakers will include leaders in the administration and Congress, as well as nationally recognized housing and community development experts.

This year's convening will include sessions on housing finance reform, homelessness, affordable housing production, black homeownership and Community Reinvestment Act modernization and will be followed by NHC's Advocacy Day on December 4, taking place on Capitol Hill.

Over 200 participants are expected to attend, most of whom will be decision makers in housing finance, community development, federal and local government and advocacy.
